ROSE LAW NOW BEFORE SUPREME COURT.

Columbus, Ohio, Dec. 17.—Attorney George H. Phelps, of Findlay, today filed a petition in error in the Supreme Court in the case of Jacob Gassmann against Arthur D. Kerns et al., officers of the Anti-Saloon League of Hancock county, to test the constitutionality of the Rose county option law. Simultaneously Mr. Phelps appeared before the Court in chambers and asked for an injunction to restrain the operation of the act. He argued that the defendants in error had conspired to take away from his client all of his property through the operation of the law, and for that reason it was unconstitutional. Attorney Wayne B. Wheeler, State Superintendent of the league, was present at the chamber hearing and argued that an injunction could not be issued against the operation of a criminal statute. Besides, he believed that the Hancock county officials of his organization were not the proper parties to proceed against. The Court informed Mr. Phelps that the motion docket had been heard in the morning and that the motion for injunction would be given due consideration.

SALOONS OF TEXAS CLOSED SUNDAY.

Galveston, Texas, Dec. 17.—Governor Campbell announced today that every saloon in Texas will be closed by next Sunday for the first time in the state's history; that the counties and cities where state officers were derelict have informed him they will obey the edict. But he wants no aid from breweries, and states he will have none of their tainted money with which to compel citizens to obey the law. Breweries offered a fund to employ detectives against saloon keepers.
